

Internal Sales Representative

Job Description

We are recruiting for an Internal Sales Representative to join us at our UK head office in West Sussex.

Reporting to the Commercial Manager, the successful candidate will be part of our Commercial team. You will assist in driving sales growth across the UK business, working closely with Marketing, field-based Business Development Managers and Commercial team. You will qualify enquiries and manage opportunities from first contact through to order stage. Enquiries are generated through existing customer base and website, not cold calling. Full training would be provided.

This role is perfect for a technically-minded individual who enjoys finding solutions to clients' problems and is able to communicate effectively with clients and colleagues alike.

In return you will be part of a forward-thinking company, focused on success and growth, within an enjoyable, friendly and supportive team.

Job Type: Full-time

Salary: £25,000.00 to £30,000.00 /year dependent on experience
